COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1935. 131st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 18. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1935 No. 80

SENATE

THURSDAY JUNE 20, 1935.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon

The PRESIDENT (Pro Tempore John G. Homsher) in the Chair

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. William E. Howard, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O Lord, in our association with each other and in our planning for the common good, keep us constantly reminded of the scriptural injunction, "No man liveth unto himself and no man dieth unto himself".

Whether we intend it or not our lives touch and influence other lives. Much more do the actions of such a legislative body as this Senate affect the interests and well-being of the people who must obey the laws here enacted.

May Thy spirit possess the members of both Houses of this Legislature. May they and the Governor of our sovereign State be led by divine wisdom in what they do during this, the final week of this session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

We offer this prayer in great earnestness and with the desire that Thy will may be done. Amen.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT SENATE BILL NO. 1437 (HOUSE BILL NO. 1991)

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, before proceeding with the consideration of the calendar, I desire to call up the General Appropriation Bill. In view of the regrettable incident that happened a few days ago I think it becomes necessary now, more than ever before, that there be a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations. I know it has been tradition for many years not to call a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations. The older members of this body can recall that time and time again I have complained about this practice. I call attention to the fact that the majority of the members of this body are members of the Committee on Appropriations and I read with great surprise, in the papers of yesterday, as coming from the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, that he had difficulty in handling the members of the Committee on Appropriations. I want to call your attention to the fact that for years and years the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations appropriated every dollar of the moneys of the State, that were spent during the biennium. I think this has been the common practice; I do not complain particularly of the present chairman of the committee, or of the past ones; but this thing has gone along too long. You might say, "Why did you not say something before the closing days of the session?" I speak my mind, and that is a privilege we are granted by the Constitution—the right to free speech and on this floor I have expressed time and time again my objection to this practice.

Now then, this General Appropriation Bill contains an item of appropriation for the revaluation of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company. I understand that the discussion in the Attorney General's office between the Attorney General and the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, and some other witnesses—that this was the item that was discussed specifically. This is the item on which rested any transactions that might have taken place, or any discussion of the matter of patronage, insurance or other matters.

Now, members of the Senate and Mr. President, I believe that the General Appropriation Bill should be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations. It will not delay matters, because we can then have discussion, with particular emphasis laid on the appropriation for the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company. If we are responsible, if we are members of the Committee on Appropriaons, if we have anything to do with it at all, we might well find out about it now, before we close the session.

Mr. President, I therefore move that the General Appropriation Bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations, and that there be an immediate meeting of the Committee on Appripriations.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to call the attention of the Senate particularly—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his point of order.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, my point of order is that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is out of order. The motion I made has not been seconded, and when I make a motion I believe I should have the right to have it seconded before anyone speaks on the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I yield.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, in seconding the motion of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, I wish to state that custom and practice in the manner of conducting the business of this Senate have become damnable in many respects. They not only thwart the will of the people, they retard the flow of many worth-while bills through this Senate. For many years there has never been a meeting of the Committee on Appropriations, as I understand it—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, a motion to recommit is not debatable.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, will confine himself to the motion.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I therefore second the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to call the attention of the Senate, particularly of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, and also of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Rodgers, to the fact that the General Appropriation Bill is not up from the printer, and is not on the desks of the Senators. I therefore rise to a point of order that the motion at this time is out of order.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I fully understand that the bill is not up from the printer. In that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is correct; and I withdraw my motion for the present. I will make the same motion when I am informed by the Chair that the bill is up from the printer.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

The PRESIDENT. The motion is withdrawn.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1361 (House Bill No. 2062), on final passage, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Department of Highways for allocation to and expenditure in the various second-class townships of the Commonwealth for the maintenance construction and reconstruction of township streets roads and bridges during the calendar years one thousand nine hundred thirty-six and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven requiring townships to reduce their tax rates for road and street purposes for said years and providing for the use and maintenance of road building machinery and equipment belonging to such townships by the Department of Highways in carrying out the purposes of this act.

go over in its order.

This is a very important highway bill, and may require some additional amendment. At the request of the Chairman of the Committee on Highways I make this request.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, a question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, explain this bill. What struck me, was that there would be a merger without consent of the shareholders.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am not surprised that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, is struck; but what I would like to know

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, is this a Greenfield Bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, a what?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, an Albert M. Greenfield Bill. I was told that such was the case.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I can only answer the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, asking him who is this Albert M. Greenfield, that his name should be brought up here.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, a well known citizen of Philadelphia.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is a bill which the members of the sub-committee have gone into for the purpose of doing two things: First, for the purpose of correcting a condition which has arisen by reason of some defects in the building and loan association code.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this calendar is hard enough to follow if we continue in order, and I am going to object —unless there is some special reason, for amendment or otherwise, I object to calling up bills out of order.

Mr. HUNSICKER. Mr. President, in regard to the bill referred to by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I want to assure the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, that what Senator Shapiro said is true. We worked hard on this bill and we have eliminated all the objectionable features, so far as the building and loan associations are concerned, and I ask the Senate to vote for the bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as I understand the matter, there has been a motion to proceed to the consideraion of this bill out of order. I have not heard the motion put by the Chair, but when it is put I intend to vote against it unless there is a specific reason why we should defer the consideration of other bills and take this one up As has been said by the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, it is hard to jump around the calendar in this way, and unless there is some special reason I shall vote "no" on every motion to take bills up out of order. I have not heard the Chair put the motion to proceed on this bill out of order, and unless there is a motion made and carried to do likewise, I submit that the bill is not now before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will inform the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that the Chair is entirely in sympathy with the proposal to consider bills only in their regular order; but the Chair thinks the Senator from Bucks will find that the motion has been submitted to the Senate whether the bill be taken up out of order.

And the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO INVESTIGATION OF GOVERNOR'S REMARKS TO SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE RELATIVE TO BILL TO TAX CHAIN STORES

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to call up resolution offered in the Senate on June 12th.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 12, 1935.

Whereas, During a visit paid by the Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania to Governor George H. Earle at his office in the State Capitol, Tuesday, June 11, the Governor in a discussion of tax bills suggested an investigation into what he termed "ugly rumors" concerning the attitude of Senators upon pending legislation known as the bill to tax chain stores, and

Whereas, The remarks of Governor George H. Earle have been given great prominence in the newspapers of Pennsylvania today and constitute a reflection upon members of this body, making it imperative that the facts upon which any such statement as made by Governor George H. Earle should be made known to the Senate, now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby respectfully requests Governor Earle to submit to the Senate in writing any information he may possess as a foundation for the remarks made by him at his conference with Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania on Tuesday, June 11.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I move to amend the above resolution by striking out the following: [Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby respectfully requests Governor Earle to submit to the Senate in writing any information he may possess as a foundation for the remarks made by him at his conference with Members of the Finance Committee of the Senate of Pennsylvania on Tuesday, June 11.] and insert in lieu the following: Whereas, There is now pending before the Senate House Bill No. 864, commonly known as the Chain Store Tax Act, imposing an annual license tax for the privilege of operating a store or a chain of stores within this Commonwealth; and Whereas, Certain rumors are current implying that the attitude of certain of the members of this body toward the Chain Store Tax Act has been improperly or illegally influenced or affected; Now Therefore Be it Resolved, if the House of Representatives concur, That the President of the Senate appoint three Senators, and the Speaker of the House appoint three Representatives, who shall constitute a joint committee, and whose duties it shall be to make a complete investigation concerning the truth or falsity of said rumors, and any and all activities resorted to by proponents and opponents of the said House Bill No. 864, from the date of its introduction in the House until the present time; and be it further Resolved, That said joint committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman, requiring and commanding any person to appear before it and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the joint committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the joint committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the joint committee shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before it. Any person who shall wilfully neglect and refuse to appear and testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of this Commonwealth in such cases; and be it further Resolved, That said joint committee shall make it report to the Senate before the adjournment of the present session of the General Assembly, if feasible. A sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the said joint committee to carry ou the purposes set forth in this Resolution.

Mr. RICE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his point of order.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, my point of order is that the amendment offered by the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, is out of order, and unconstitutional, for the reason that it contains an appropriation, which, under the Constitution of the Commonwealth and the laws thereof, can only be made by a bill introduced, referred to committee and passed upon after having been read three times at length by both Houses of this Assembly. I therefore submit my point of order, that this amendment offered to the resolution of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, is out of order.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, on the question of the point of order raised by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, it seems to me that it is immaterial what is contained in the resolution so long as it is germane to the subject. I do not think that $2500.00 can be appropriated by a resolution—I agree with that; however, it is common practice to designate a sum to be used in an investigation, and that is to be followed by a bill. Therefore, there would be no reason for rejecting this resolution on any such ground as that.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it seems to me that the resolution—

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, before proceeding further, unless the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, wants to speak on my point of order—to which I do not object—I should like to have a decision on the point of order raised.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the point of order raised by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is well taken. We cannot pass a resolution which has the effect of a law without going through the regular process of legislation.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I understand you have ruled that the point of order is well taken?

The PRESIDENT. Yes.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I will appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the appeal.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the appeal must be in writing.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair calls to the attention of the Senate that the appeal must be in writing, with the names of those who second it.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the appeal.

The PRESIDENT. There is nothing before the Senate.

RECESS

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move, then that the Senate do now recess for five minutes, in order that the appeal may be reduced to writing.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I desire to withdraw the appeal that I made, in view of the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw the point of order I raised as to constitutionality of the amendment to the resolution.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I offered this resolution on June 12th, following a visit to the Governor's office, which took place the day before. On the occasion of this visit there were certain statements made by the Governor in which he purported to have certain information; and, believing that any information which the Governor had in his possession should be transmitted to the Senate, this resolution was offered. Until we receive the information from the Governor I do not think that there should be any committee formed for the purpose of an investigation. After the Governor sends us in writing whatever information he has, I will be glad to vote for the appointment of a committee to investigate any alleged charges.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I do not want to be disrespectful to His Excellency, but the shortest phrase that can be used to express the situation is the well known phrase "Put up or shut up."

If we are informed by the Governor or anybody else, any official of the Government, on Monday, that there is something wrong about the vote on the chain stores tax, and on Tuesday that there has been a bargain made for Sunday movies and the amusement tax, reflecting discredit on the Senate, and on Wednesday Mr. J. Howard Pew has bribed me to vote against the gas tax, and on Thursday that somebody has bribed someone else on the milk bill, the situation becomes complicated; and I think it is not the duty of the Senate to take cognizance of gossip—or, at least, not gossip, but of statements that are unverified.

I therefore think, in a matter of this kind, that our dignity is just as great as that of the Governor, and that he ought to submit a concrete statement about any irregularities affecting the chain store tax.

Now, a secondary objection to the amendments is this: It seems to me that whoever drafted this resolution committed a sin against dignity, courtesy and good taste by bringing into this question the members of the House. I see no reason for members of the House to participate in a matter which is strictly the business of the Senate.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I was glad when the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, took cognizance of rumors, as is indicated in his resolution; but the Senator did not go far enough, to my mind; he simply asked for information from the Governor; and if it is of sufficient importance to ask for information, then, to my mind, it is of sufficient importance to go into the matter thoroughly, not merely to just ask for information—without an investigation on the information he may furnish. If we receive the information from the Governor that was requested in the resolution presented by the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, and if that information is sufficient, to the minds of the Senate, to proceed, then we certainly would want to have an investigation.

He speaks of this resolution as being presented on June 12th. Such was the case, and at the time I objected to immediate consideration—not because I was against the resolution but because I wanted to find out just what the resolution contained; and therefore I objected to immediate consideration, and the resolution went over in the regular way. Upon receiving a copy of the resolution I prepared amendments; because if we want information, let us get information from all sides—don't stop with merely a statement from the Governor. And if this resolution was not acted upon, the Senator said he would be glad, after having information, and so on and so forth, to have an investigation—if we should have had this resolution acted upon earlier—because it remained in the committee from June 12th to the present time, and certainly it could have been brought out much earlier than in the closing days of this session.

I appeared before the committee the day before yesterday, when the question was up, and asked to have the amendment incorporated, if possible. The committee in its wisdom, did not see fit to do so; but I contend, gentlemen, if we want information, let us follow that information with an investigation if the facts demand it. The Governor can just as well give information to a committee as he can to this Senate, and, certainly, if any leads were to come from the information, then we can proceed with the investigation, as I believe every Senator in this body would want to proceed if the facts warrant it.

Therefore, I think that this resolution should be adopted—the amendments should be adopted. The distinguished Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, took occasion to bring up the fact that it should not include the House representation. If the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, will examine these amendments he will find that they speak of an investigation to start with the introduction of a bill in the House; and as long as the resolution which covers the proposed investigation goes back to the time of its introduction in the House, as far as the bill is concerned, then, certainly, House members ought to be on any committee of investigation. I do not see, Mr. President, why we should try to isolate an investigation. It begins to appear to my mind that we need investigations, perhaps more thorough investigations—into these ugly rumors or something else, as Dr. Woodward says; and if he has in mind an investigation that would lead to the end of investigations, I do not believe it is too late to bring it up. I know I would support it. But if ugly rumors have been in circulation—and I believe Senators may have heard remarks tending to that end—then let us investigate, and if there is no truth to the rumors it will do no harm to bring out that these rumors have been false; and if there is truth to any accusations, that may come from an investigation, surely every member of this Senate will want the investigation followed through to the end. I ask, Mr. President, that the Senate concur in these amendments.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I will gladly.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, how soon after I introduced this resolution, and he objected to its immediate consideration, did I ask him if he had his amendments prepared.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I think within a day or two.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I also desire to ask the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, how many times since then I have asked him if he had his amendments prepared.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, if I may answer that question, I do not think the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, put the question to me in that way. I will say this, if he wants me to: That he asked me to show him a copy of my amendments—not whether I had the amendments prepared. And I will ask him if that is not the case.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, almost daily during the days in which the Legislature has been in session I have gone to the Senator from Northampton, Mr. Roberts, and asked him if he had his amendments prepared; and it was not until the day before yesterday, I believe, that he told me that he did have them prepared.

Mr. President, I did not see the amendments, but he showed me that he had them; I did not have the amendments in my hand, and I did not read them; and yesterday I called up the resolution knowing that he had the amendments prepared.

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I merely wish to add that the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure—I think not intentionally, of course, because I will say that the Senator has been very gentlemanly about it—he came and told me this morning that he intended to present the resolution at this time, but he asked me if I would show him a copy of the amendments. I do not remember ever having been asked the question whether I had the amendments prepared, because if I had been asked the question in that way I certainly would have told the gentleman that the amendments were prepared.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, if I interpret the Constitution correctly the Senate is the judge of the qualifications of its own members; the House of Representatives is the judge of the qualifications of its own members. I am opposed to this resolution, Mr. President, —to the amendment, rather—because it is in my opinion, beneath the dignity of the Senate of Pennsylvania. If Senators are to be investigated, they should be and must be investigated by Senators. I question, therefore, on that ground alone, whether this amendment should be considered. I do hope, however, that the resolution, unamended, will pass. Ever since this session started I have been one of the most vociferous opponents of the chain store tax; and I therefore thing it is proper that this Senate be informed as to what the Governor of this Commonwealth had in mind; and when we have that information from him, then we con properly consider whether there should be an investigation or not.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that there is one reason why this amendment should be adopted, and the investigation be a joint investigation. That reason is, there are decisions of the courts to the effect that an investigation by one body—it does not have power to issue it subpoenas when the body, the Senate or House, is not in session.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and Mr. FREY and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—24

Baumer,	Law,	Reed,	Shapiro,
Cavalcante,	McCreesh,	(Washington)	Sones,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask for a re-reading of the resolution.

The resolution was again read for the information of the Senate.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, the Senate has voted down the only worthwhile resolution. This, I think, is a trivial, annoying paper; it is undignified for this Senate, if it is interested at all in these ugly rumors, to confine itself to a little, casual conversation made to members of the Committee on Finance in the office of the Governor. I say it is belittling on the part of the Senate, and it is intended to be belittling, in my judgment, to the Governor. It ought not to have been introduced. If this Senate desires an investigation of the chain store episode, in this Senate and in this community during this winter, why does it not go to it?

I think the members of this Senate do not want an investigation of the facts. I think it is of no consequence to ask the Governor to send over in writing something that he has heard or that has been rumored to him. I do not think this Senate ought to so demean itself as to ask for a trivial thing like that and stop there. I say we have determined for ourselves that we do not want to be investigated, when we vote down the only thing that would have cut any figure here, on a trivial objection that it drags in the House, as was stated here. No money is available except with the concurrence of the House, and no investigation of any consequence can be conducted without the assistance of the House. Every lawyer knows that. I say again this resolution has no merit; it is not intended to draw out anything; it is a red herring, and it ought not to be put through by this Senate.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I will

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if he was with the Committee on Finance when it appeared at the Governor's office.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I was.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, at the time this statement was made by the Governor?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, is it not a fact that when the Committee on Finance was invited to the Governor's office the newspaper correspondents were also invited there?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, no; I do not think that is so.

Mr. OWLETT. Well, Mr. President, the newspaper correspondents were there, were they not?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. Prsident, some came in, yes.

Mr. OWLETT. Now, Mr. President, it seems to me that it does not come with very good grace for my friend the Senator from Monroe to object to this Senate's asking the Governor the basis of the statement that he made before the newspaper correspondents and the Committee on Finance of this Senate when they are invited in there and the statement hurled all over this State.

Now, I am in hearty accord that you cannot pay attention to all these rumors that are going about. My gracious, there are all kinds of rumors. We have seen evidences right here in this Senate of the truth of many rumors that have gone about. We have heard rumors of patronage being held up, to the Democratic members of the House; and if they did not vote straight, they would not get any patronage—and all kinds of things; but when the Committee on Finance of this Senate is invited to the Governor's office, and then the newspaper correspondents are invited in there to give it publicity, I do not see how representative men of this State, elected to represent the people, can let that go, see it published all over the State, and we take it. I do not propose to take that kind of stuff; and those voting for this resolution are not voting against an investigation.

If these are mere rumors, I say, "Let us forget them." If it is published all over the State on the basis of rumor, I say, "Let us know about it. Let us know the facts." And I will vote for any investigation of them.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to look at the practical aspect of this picture, and am not interested in anything else. I voted for the other resolution because I thought it more practical, not because I agreed with the procedure. I have tried to refrain, through my short term as Senator, from engaging in personalities; I shall try to so continue same on this subject. This resolution reads that the Governor said there were ugly rumors. I have heard it said that Senator Woodward was a distinguished Senator from Philadelphia. I have heard some other rumors too, but I doubt, with this resolution, that I shall ever write another to the Governor with a request, a very formal request, for information as to the time he gives us the information. There we will propose a resolution to investigate and ask for its immediate adoption. Somebody will get up and object to unanimous consent. If we adjourn tomorrow, and the Governor wants the Senate to remain, and has furnished us with the information to investigate, how can we investigate? I do not believe in playing marbles without pinafores. I have grown beyond that stage, I have grown beyond the pinafore stage. This resolution is innocuous. The Governor will give us the information tomorrow. If he does, we will be in no position to appoint a committee, and that is my reason for voting for the other resoluion and against this resolution.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I have a warm personal regard for the Governor of Pennsylvania; I admire his courage, his sincerity, and I admire the stand he has taken on certain legislation. I have united with him on all his social legislation and his labor legislation, and I believe that he has made a sincere effort to do the thing that is right. I am very doubtful—and I cast no reflections on my Democratic friends—that he would approve the actions of the Democrats on this question; in fact, I would be very much surprised.

I am going to vote for this resolution, because I believe that the Governor should furnish any information he has to this body. I cannot conceive how anyone could vote against this resolution. If the Governor has stated publicly, and given it to the public press, that he has this information, I believe he is man enough to give it to us; and I say to my Democratic friends here that I think that each and every one of them should vote for this resolution asking the Governor to provide us with any information that he has abut wrongdoing on the part of anyone on the passage of—or, rather, on the vote for or against this resolution.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this resolution may or may not have merit, but in order that I may be guided in my voting—since this resolution says that the Governor, in a discussion of tax bills, suggested an investigation into what he termed "ugly rumors", it appears to me that this resolution would investigate a suggesion made by the Governor to these gentlemen to institute an invesigation. That sounds absurd to me, and in order that we may more intelligently vote upon this resolution I wish to interrogate the proponent of the resolution, the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will be glad to.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, was the statement of the Governor, that ugly rumors were going around, confined solely to the consideration of the chain stores tax, or was it a general statement that ugly rumors were going around concerning measures in the Senate?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, as I recall it it referred to the chain stores tax.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I simply desire to say, in response to a suggestion that was made by the other side—that we do not desire an investigation—I say that the Governor of Pennsylvania has no right to give the newspaper reporters of Pennsylvania statements which affect the integrity of members of this Senate, or that may be so interpreted, and not put up the evidence that he has to sustain them.

I ask that the Governor of Pennsylvania give whatever information he has; and I also add, as one of the most pronounced opponents of the chain stores tax, I would welcome any evidence which he may present.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I cannot help but think that this reduces—a resolution of this kind, if it is passed—reduces the majority of the membership of the State Senate to nothing more or less than a group of common scolds. It is not averred in this resolution that the Governor ever intimated that he possessed any information. It is not indicated from the resolution that the Governor expressed any belief in the alleged rumors. According to the resolution the only thing that it says is that the Governor, among others, probably, was one who had heard of some of the rumors that all of us have heard. There is nothing in this situation but rumors; the Governor did not indicate, according to the terms of the resolution, that he possessed any information, but he asked the Senate, "If you have any confidence in these rumors, let us have an investigation." He threw out a challenge to us either to clear our names or to lay before the Senate anything that was wrong. Now, what good is it going to be for us to hear what the rumors were? And that is all this resolution asks. The resolution says, "Dear Governor: Tell us the scandal that you have been hearing." Now, that is all it asks: "Let us have the benefit of the scandal; whisper that in our ears; we like to hear scandal, the same way as you do. Now tell us the rumors you have been hearing." That is all we are asking of the Governor; and I certainly add my voice to the voice of the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, that this is the most ridiculous maneuver that I have seen in the Senate, in this long drawn out and tiresome session; it cannot have any purpose at all, and the only thing this can do is, as I said at the start, to reduce the membership of the State Senate to a bunch of old wives and common scolds.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I should like to interrogate he Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will be glad to be interrogated.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, did any member of the committee in the Governor's office that day ask the Governor the foundation of these rumors?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, they did not.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, it seems to me, then, to be very unfair to creep out of the Governor's office without asking such a question, or going into the quesion in the presence of the Governor; then come here and ask for that information in writing. It seems to me the proper thing to have done at that time, when the Governor mentioned these rumors—the members of the committee at that time should have inquired further into the foundation of the same. For that reason I think that this resolution should be voted down.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the Senator from Fayette County, has labelled me as the Emperor Nero, and now I am being labelled as an old wife or a common scold. I submit respectfully that I am not an old wife, certainly; and I claim to be not a common scold.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to this resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. McCLURE and Mr. BUCKMAN and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—29

Aron,	Ealy,	McClure,	Staudenmeier,
Batchelor,	Gelder,	McGinnis,	Thompson,

Batchelor,	Reed, (Dauphin)

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1058 (House Bill No. 440), entitled:

An Act to reenact three hundred and five of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred fifty-three) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" fixing the compensation of elected county tax assessors in cities of the third class boroughs towns and townships of the second class and repealing inconsistent legislation.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I call to the attention of the members of the Senate that this bill increases the salaries of assessors. I would just like to call the attention of the members of the Senate to the fact that this bill increases the salaries of all the assessors.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this bill increases the assessor's from $3.50 a day to $5.00 a day.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not believe there is anyone here who would take a position that that is an unreasonable price for an assessor. It had been $5.00 a day until 1933, when it was inadvertently decreased; and this, as I understand it, is designed to place the salary back to where it was at that time.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I might also state that a bill similar to this was introduced by me and has been passed in the House; and I would like to say that this bill passed likewise. It makes a better law, and the Governor is more likely to sign it.

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, a question.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr McGINNIS. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, what is the objection of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, to the bill?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I understand that the proponents of this bill want it placed on the postoned calendar.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr.President, is that the only reason of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, that is my only reason.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, has the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, read the bill?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, no.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am very familiar with this bill, and with its friends. The bill is in the interest of public health, public welfare; it is to prevent the children from going into first-class townships, purchasing fireworks, and then going next door into second-class townships and burning themselves. The sponsor of this bill is a friend of mine. I hope this motion will not prevail.

Mr. McGINNIS. Then, Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill go over in its order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether his reasons for asking unanimous consent that the bill go over in order are the same as those for his motion to postpone consideration of the bill.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, a number of people have asked me to have this bill postponed, placed on the postponed calendar, saying that it is a bad bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Senator from Allegheny whether he knows if those people made a mistake in the number of the bill. He himself does not know anything about the bill; it may be Senate Bill No. 1159 to which he refers.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I renew my request for unanimous consent that the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I suggest that the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, go over in order, and let the bill go on.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, explain some of the important points about the bill, so that I might vote for the bill. I want to vote for the bill if it is a good one.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I said I had a call from the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Van Allsburg, who told me all about it. I do not want to detain the Senate, but he showed me on that very day, in the Harrisburg Telegraph, an account of an injury caused by the very thing that this bill is designed to prevent.

Mr. McCREESH. Mr. President, I cannot hear the Senator from Philadelphia.

Mr. WOODWARD. Well, Mr. President, for the benefit of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, as well as the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, I would like to state again that the purpose of this bill is to prevent people from purchasing fireworks and fire crackers in adjoining townships and then going over into their own home townships and setting fire to buildings and to themselves. You read in the papers every day of these casualties, and I do not see any reason at all why the Senate should not be satisfied with a protective measure of this kind.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed second reading.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The second section of the bill was read.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move to amend Section 2, page 44, lines 6 to 12, by striking out all of said lines.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I do not wish to interfere in any way with the General Appropriation Bill, except that I wish to ask the Senate to strike out an item of $200,000. I offer this economy—well, to explain, this item was inserted as $250,000 in the House, and the Committee on Appropriations in the Senate made it $200,000, to enable the Public Service Commission to revalue—to appraise the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company; and I have looked up and given the facts in this matter, and I find that in 1921 the Pittsburgh Railway Company had an appraisal made by the Public Service Commission, at a cost of $800,000, which was paid for entirely by the City of Pittsburgh and the sub-divisions of Allegheny County; and the State paid no money whatever. In 1923 there was a valuation of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, and the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company put up $775,000, and the city put up nothing. That was in 1923. Now, I am informed that the inventory then arrived at, in 1923, is perfectly good today, that it will cost comparatively little to bring that inventory up to date.

I therefore submit that someone ought to prove to the Senate that it is unnecessary to appropriate $200,000 of the State's money for the same purpose that was achieved in 1923 at a cost of nothing to the State. I would like someone to explain the situation.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think that the gentleman from Philadelphia, before he made his motion to amend, should have asked someone to explain. If he had done so, I should have been very glad to have told him that under Section B of the amendment to the Bankruptcy Act, when a corporation such as a utility, in a municipality, applies for a reorganization, there must, under the provisions of the Act, be a revaluation of its assets, a certified revaluation made by the Public Service Commission, and there must be funds provided for making that revelation.

The only question in this particular bill is as to whether or not the amount appropriated is sufficient. That matter was discussed today, before the whole Committee on Appropriations. We listened to the Chairman of the Public Service Commission, and we came to the conclusion that the amount was certainly necessary at least to the extent of $200,000; and I think the gentleman from Philadelphia should withdraw his amendment. Otherwise, the proceedings in the United States District Court can never be completed.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, Yes, sir.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, why should not the Underliers pay for this revaluation instead of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, because the Underliers cannot make the revaluation under the Act. Under the law the revaluation must be made by the Public Service Commission. It so happens that the Underliers would be perfectly satisfied not to have the revaluation made, but take their own revaluation.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, why should they not do it just the same?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, because there is nothing in the law to compel them to pay it.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, my argument is that most of this has already been performed by the Public Service Commission; at a cost of $775,000; that it does not require $200,000 to bring the inventory up to date.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the adoption or rejection of this amendment seems like a very serious proposition. The Committee on Appropriations of the Senate sat this afternoon and heard this matter discussed fully, and by a vote of that committee decided to leave this appropriation at $200,000; and I believe that this Senate would be making a very grave mistake in striking out this entire appropriation. Under the wording of the appropriation bill as it was recommended to the Committee on Appropriations this foundation, this $200,000, was to be used, or may be used, not only for revaluation of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company but for any other public utility in the State of Pennsylvania on motion of the Public Service Company; and it seems to me that it would be a very grave mistake for this Senate at this time, with this very meager consideration, to vote to strike out this most important appropriation for the functioning of the Public Service Commission,—not only in connection with the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company but on the revaluation of any other public utility in Pennsylvania upon which they may desire to move to reduce rates.

I ask the Senate to vote down this proposed amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I am one who does not understand the motion made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward. As I get it, the object is to strike out the entire appropriation of $200,000. Is that correct?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is correct.

The PRESIDENT. That is the amendment,—that is the purpose of the amendment.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that would leave this Public Service Commission, as I understand without any funds to function?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as to the revaluation, that is right.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, in face of the fact that all of us generally are complaining about large rates, how does the gentleman expect that this Public Service Commission will operate, in the appeals being made by the public, to revalue these companies over Pennsylvania, without funds for it? I think that is the question involved here.

Mr. RODGERS. Mr. President, was it not agreed upon in the committee this afternoon to remove the restrictions and leave the sum at $200,000?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is correct.

And the question recurring,

Will th Senate agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WOODWARD and Mr. ARON and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—2

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1068 (House Bill No. 1568), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs ad revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by requiring borough fiscal records to be opened to inspection.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1068 (House Bill No. 1568), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by requiring borough fiscal records to be open to inspection.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend section 1, page 2, lines 6 and 7, by striking out with heavy-faced brackets the words "his, her or its agent upon demand therefor"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. BATCHELOR. Mr. President, those are strike-outs, and this is a House bill. I would like to have the Senate act now on third reading and final passage.

The PRESIDENT. These are just strike-out amendments: the bill can be taken up.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, before unanimous consent is given to amend that bill, I would like to know what the amendments are.

The PRESIDENT. Unanimous consent was granted. One of the difficulties is, the members of the Senate evidently are not able to keep up with the pace of the Chair. The amendments are evidently unanimously agreed to, being strike-outs

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM THE CALENDAR

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1683 (House Bill No. 2107), on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend sections five hundred forty-seven eight hundred two and nine hundred two of and to add section nine hundred and two A to the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred three) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" providing for and regulating methods of making appropriations expenditures contracts and purchases by the township and the making of the annual budget on a uniform form prepared by representatives of the township supervisors the Department of Highways and the Department of Internal Affairs requiring the supervisors to file the annual budget with the said department and the auditors to file an annual financial report with said department and providing penalties.

be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has no alternative to putting the motion.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, perhaps it would be in order to discuss the bill. As I understand it Senate Bill No. 1683 (House Bill No. 2107) is now under discussion.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is correct; he may proceed.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this is a bill that would put every second class township in the State under the Department of Internal Revenue so far as its budget for any year is concerned. We hear a great deal in these days about centralization of power. Up to this time our second-class townships have been able to run their own affairs without any assistance from the Department of Internal Revenue, and I consider that it would be a step backward to pass a bill requiring the presentation of the budget from every second-class township of the State to be approved by the secretary, or the Department of Internal Revenue. We have in our second-class townships boards of supervisors who are entirely competent to run the affairs of those small communities. If we are going to turn everything over to centralization here at Harrisburg, then, of course, we shall want to pass this bill; but if we feel that we ourselves are able to govern ourselves in our home communities, then we want to defeat this bill, which my motion to strike it from the calendar was intended to do. I ask that the Senate vote to retain control of our own local governments in our own local communities, and to strike this bill from the calendar.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am not particularly interested in the bill as a township measure, but as a budgetary system I think it is a step in the right direction. This is one of the several bills—of which I think there are sixteen in all—which set up a budgetary system; and so far as the Senator's argument is concerned, I am informed that the second-class township supervisors have gone on record in favor of this bill.

Secondly, at a meeting of the committee which had charge of this bill the matter was all discussed, the matter threshed out, and the bill was reported out. It is not a question of control but a question of gathering the proper information to be brought to the Department, so they in turn may bring it before the Senate in proper form, from the various departments of this Government; and I think it is a step in the right direction and that this bill should not be defeated.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I want to add my voice to the voice of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, in behalf of this bill and of the other series of bills prepared for the other classes of municipalities. Now, when the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, brings up the argument of centralization I would like to call his attention to the fact, in regard to the insurring of indebtedness in this class of municipalities, or other classes, the matter at the present time is under the supervision of the Department of Internal Affairs, by which the Department must approve the incurring of indebtedness before the indebtedness can be incurred.

Now, in connection with the uniformity required by this series of bills, the uniform forms and other actions are prepared by a board of five, four of whom are appointed by the municipality, and only one by the Department of Internal Affairs, and I rather think the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, is over-exaggerating the bugaboo of centralization of power by these bills. They are progressive measures, measures which should improve municipal administration; and I ask the Senate to support this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I am perfectly willing to hear the arguments of the Senator from Centre, Mr. Thompson, in connection with this bill, because I know he represents, as I do, a district which has in it second-class townships. I am at a loss, however, to understand what the Senator from Centre has to do with a bill of this kind, affecting townships of which he has none in his district, other than the fact that he considers himself to represent the whole State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I will answer that question.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, has the floor.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I thought he was asking me a question.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, not yet. I am aware of the fact that the Department of Internal Affairs has certain jurisdiction; and let me say, perhaps, with reference to the bearing of townships of the second class; and in order that there may be some regard for the debts of our different municipalities, but when it comes to expending the money that is raised by taxes in these little township, I consider, and submit to this Senate, that Harrisburg has nothing to do with it. We believe in Government of the people, by the people and for the people; we believe in self-government; and I ask the Senate to vote my motion to drop this bill from the calendar, which is a motion to kill the bill.

I believe we should retain control of our own Government in our second-class townships, in order that we may make up our budget, in order that we may, if necessary, change those budgets, and in order that we may carry on —and as we have been doing, without service of the press.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am very glad to disclose my interest in this bill. I disagree entirely with the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, in the view that I have no interest in bills dealing with second-class townships. Apparently that has been the difference amongst a great many of us throughout this session. I consider myself a representative in the Senate from Pennsylvania, not from a particular or peculiar district; and I think that what this Senate does with regard to one district has an effect on the whole State of Pennsylvania.

If, however, I had such interest in this particular bill as the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, has, I would make it my business to read it a little more carefully, so I would not make statements on the floor of the Senate not in accordance with the terms of the bill.

This bill does not give any right whatever to the Department of Internal Affairs, nor anyone else from the particular class of townships. It merely provides a budgetary form so that there may be on file in the particular Department information concerning the needs of that particular township; and, that being the case, I am as much interested in that township as in any other Senator. I want to know how these budgets are prepared, just what is happening and why certain amounts are necessary. I want to participate in the appropriation more than has been permitted of Senators heretofore; and it is because of that fact, and because I feel that because of our laxity and the general feeling among so many Senators that they represent a few people, we have gotten ourselves in the position in which we are today; and I do not propose to be put aside because I do not represent a second-class township. I think if the Senator will perform his duty to the townships, he will read the bill, and then he will withdraw his motion.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of legislative inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of legislative inquiry.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, a number of the Senators are unaware as to whether they will be voting on the bill or to strike it from the calendar, and I would like to be informed.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair pointed out that the motion is to strike the bill from the calendar. That is the motion before the Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO and Mr. THOMPSON (Centre) and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—14

Batchelor,	Coyne,	Huhman,	McClure,
Bean,	Ealy,	Hunsicker,	Pierson,

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1701 (House Bill No. 2711), on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred seventy-nine) entitled "An act to fix the salary and mileage of the members of the General Assembly and to provide for the furnishing of such postage stationery and supplies as may be necessary for the conduct of their offices and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" as amended increasing the compensation of members of the General Assembly.

be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President,I desire to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this is a bill increasing the compensation of members of the General Assembly from $2500 to $3000, an increase of 20 per cent. Of course, if the members of this General Assembly, in times like these, want to go on record to increase their own salaries, they will vote for it; but, Mr. President, notwithstanding my defeat on a previous motion to drop a bill from the calendar, I make a similar motion with regard to this bill

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, has stated—I suppose unintentionally—that the purpose of this bill is to increase our own salaries. I don't suppose any Senator would want to increase his own salary but we have no control over the Constitution—

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, except as to amendment.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I am rising to vote "no" on this question, because, after the six months of strenuous efforts we have had here, I think we are underpaid.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no".

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "aye", and in answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer, I should say that from what we have accomplished we should be paid less than what we are being paid now.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SHAPIRO and Mr. THOMPSON (Centre), and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30.

Batchelor,	Ealy,	McClure,	Rodgers,

An Act to limit the operation of the rule in Shelly's case by providing that certain grants and devises in trust or otherwise shall be construed not to create estates in in fee.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON (Westmoreland). Mr. President, what is the purpose of recommitting this bill? I can see no advantage by changing an old established rule of law at this time.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, this bill has been prepared and approved by the Pennsylvania State Bar Association. They are very much in favor of the bill. It clarifies the old rule in Shelly's case, which I am sure every court in this Commonwealth will welcome. I hope the Senate will pass the bill.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator who made this motion, the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, to withdraw it for the present and let the bill go over for the present.

Shapiro,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1410 (House Bill No. 2509), entitled:

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill 1410 just read, be re-committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, what is the purpose of moving to recommit this bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the purpose is to stop the other side from referring bills back. I propose that we should go through with this calendar, Mr. President, and every time these bills come up, after having been thoroughly discussed by the Committee,—if every time those bills come up the gentlemen on the other side ask that they go over, and thus delay action on them, I propose to give them a Roland for their Oliver.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to inform the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that the misunderstanding that was prevalent in the mind of the Senator from Mercer, Mr. Law, and in my mind, has been dispelled, and we agreed to call the bill up.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the trouble is that the rule in Shelly's case is a very much misunderstood rule, and unless you thoroughly understand it you should not want to have it changed. That is the answer.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, what is the rule in Shelly's case?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the rule in Shelly's case

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that the rule in Shelly's case is out of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to inform the Chair that that is the reason for recommitting this bill.

The PRESIDENT. The motion made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, was not seconded.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the bill?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE ON SECOND READING

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, this is a bill concerning the sale of malt brewed liquors, and so forth. This bill was thoroughly considered by a sub-committee of the Committee on Finance, and by the Committee on Finance; and last night there was quite a number of Senators, from both sides of the house, who agreed on this bill, and I do not think that this bill should be reconsidered at this time, or any changes made in it. It is considered valuable legislation, and the bill is liable to be defeated in its entirety if amendments are offered at this time or any changes made in the bill. I ask the members of the Senate to vote down any amendments.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, it is too bad we do not all figure in the same way. If we did, all these bills would pass, the same as they have been passing; but there are certain things in this bill that I cannot agree to. I would like to offer amendments.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The motion before the house is to reconsider the vote on second reading. We will have to act on that first.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?
The motion was not agreed to.
And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I would just like to say a word in regard to this bill. This bill at the present time, and in its present form, allows what is known as a package store. In other words, every grocery store will be allowed to handle beer. Now, it just happens that certain of our chain stores control a brewery in Jersey, and they are putting out canned beer, and in the very near future we are going to have every grocery store, especially the chain stores, handling these packages of canned beer.

Now, we have 11,000 licensees in this State who pay their licenses, and if grocery stores are going to be allowed to handle canned beer it is going to cut off sales from the people who are paying their legitimate licenses, and are running a legitimate business; and for that reason I have objection to the bill in its present form. I was trying to offer an amendment that would cut the chain stores, or any grocery store, out from selling any beer.

Mr. GRAFF. Mr. President, I desire to explain the way I intend to vote on these two bills—this one and the one following. I am absolutely and unalterably opposed to permitting clubs to sell on Sunday. However, I do feel that there is a great deal of good in these two bills; in fact, it seems to me the good in them more than offsets what does not seem to me to be good, and that is, the permitting clubs to sell on Sunday. Therefore, I intend to vote "aye" on both bills.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, just one word about the comment made by the Senator from Northumberland, Mr. Miller. This bill does not allow chain stores as such to sell beer; it allows a chain store operating in Pennsylvania to take out one license only in the State.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER BILL ON SECOND READING

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which this bill passed second reading be reconsidered.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, this is a bill to regulate—restrain the sale and importation of certain liquors. This bill is particularly desired by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; they stated to us in quite a lengthy hearing that this bill was quite an improvement over the present Act. This bill has met the same approval, of the Committee on Finance, as the previous bill, which we have just considered, and also of an informal caucus of the Republican and Democratic Senators; and I ask the members of the Senate to defeat this motion.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, my friend the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, said that this bill meets the approval of the Liquor Control Board. That may be true; I know it does not meet the approval of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association of Pennsylvania, and they are the people who pay the freight. The Liquor Control Board is out of the picture as far as they are concerned. I ask for reconsideration of the vote for the purpose of offering amendments which will not hurt the bill at all but will help it.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, we have been considering for four months here, rightfully, measures producing new taxes. This is one of the very few bills that have been introduced into the Legislature that would tend to reduce taxes. This bill, by experience we found, in Altoona saved the city approximately $8,000 a year, and it will do the same for every third-class city in the Commonwealth. It does not apply to cities of the first class, the second class or of the second class A; and, as my colleague the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, stated here on the floor to-night, while he does not come from a third-class city he is interested in the saving of taxes.

Now, this bill will seriously interfere with patronage. Those who oppose this bill, I can readily see, would have an interest in looking after the saving of some job; but I came here with the one desire in mind—not to raise taxes but to save the tax-payer, and this is one measure that will save the tax-payer—everyone who lives in a third-class city. There is a saving provision in this bill which states: "Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to repeal any local or special law providing for the collection of county taxes by County Treasurers." This is purely a revenue saving measure; it notifies the City Treasurers of third-class cities to collect city, county, school and poor taxes.

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, it may be unfortunate that there is not a complete unanimity of the Senate, among the representatives of forty-one cities of Pennsylvania, but I believe that I represent the major sentiment of this body when I say the third-class cities do not desire this bill. I cannot see where there will be any saving in taxes. I believe that in Harrisburg this office is economically administered and the taxes are efficiently collected. I am opposed to this bill, and I hope that this motion will prevail.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, will the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, state what the cost of collecting the taxes in Harrisburg is?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I cannot state. I could find the figures, but I have never taken the trouble to look them up.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, would the Senator from Dauphin state that this bill would not reduce the cost of collecting the taxes in Harrisburg?

Mr. REED (Dauphin). Mr. President, I would not say that there might not be a slight reduction, but I do not believe that there would be any better efficiency; and in these days what we want is efficiency in collection.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I will state that I do not know anything about the efficiency, but this is purely a tax-reduction measure; it would save the tax-payers money.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am a perfectly neutral party to this discussion, but it does seem to me a matter of fair play that the motion to recommit be voted down, and the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, be given a chance to get a record vote of the Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1687 (House Bill No. 2271), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the Duquesne University Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, this bill makes an appropriation to an institution under religious auspices. In voting "no," lest I be thought to entertain religious bias, I remind the Senate that I have consistently voted "no" on all appropriations to liberal arts colleges which are privately endowed and administered. I believe I am entirely free from religious prejudice, and I emphasize the fact that I vote "no" on this bill not because it is a sectarian but because it is a private institution.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I have been informed that the administration policies at Duquesne University have been entirely changed by the last Supreme Court decision, and the charter of the university has been amended to take out all objectionable features raised by the higher court. I understand that in the pre-Med. School approximately 60% of the students are non-Catholic, in Pharmacy about 70%, in the Law School about 68%. About three-fourths of the instructors in all the private schools are non-Catholic.

This information comes to me from the trustees of the school; and I might add that the trustees of the school award scholarships to practically all qualified students who request them.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, has this university received any appropriation from the State heretofore?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, yes, once.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, before the 1921 decision; was that it?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, 1922.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, 1922; is that correct?

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, 1922, yes, sir.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, this institution has recently changed its charter to overcome any objections there might be to an appropriation. I might mention, incidentally, that I had the honor conferred on me of the Doctor of Laws degree. I fully understand the objections of Dr. Prince; I know that they are not intolerant objections at all, that he has adopted this policy on several other appropriation bills. I have a profound knowledge of the splendid work this institution does; I know the faculty; my boy graduated from the High School the other night, and I know that convinces you it is a very good school. The boy is a very bright boy; he takes after his dad.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, notwithstanding the fact that I doubt very much that there is very much to take after his dad gets through, in honor of Dr. Harris and his son I propose to vote "aye" to the bill.

And the question recurring,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. CHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1704 (House Bill No. 2970), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-second day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three and one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four Special Session Pamphlet Laws five) entitled "An act imposing a State floor tax on alcohol usable for beverage purposes and certain alcoholic liquors in the Commonwealth between the date this act becomes effective and the date the Twenty-first Amendment to the Constitution of the United States is ratified describing the method and manner of collection of such tax conferring powers and imposing on certain State officers and departments and certain individuals firms and corporations and imposing penalties" by providing for an extension of time for payment in certain cases be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. THOMPSON (Centre). Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill provides for the extension of the date of payment of floor tax for two-and-a-half years. To let this bill pass would mean the budget would be unbalanced and the work we have been doing to pass these taxes would be purposeless. I do not know the gentleman who proposed it, but that gentleman must have forgotten that it takes this money out of this year's receipts, and therefore unbalances the budget.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I notice Mr. Cohen, the sponsor of the bill, is in the rear of the house, and also the Attorney-General, but I request the privilege of requesting Mr. Cohen to tell why it was done.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia Mr. Trainer is out of order.

The PRESIDENT. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, if you just keep on with this floor tax—and I told you two years ago, when it was passed here, what was going to happen—we will have the whole thing, in all probability, declared unconstitutional, and your budget will be out of balance.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as I understand the situation of this bill, in making up the budget this floor tax is treated as receivable, and if this bill passes it throws the due date of that fund out of the biennium; and I agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, that we cannot have a balanced budget here unless this bill is defeated. I understand, Mr. President, the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations agrees with the suggestion that consideration of this bill be postponed for the present, but I do believe it should be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1705 (House Bill No. 2581), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Emergency Relief Board for direct work relief and expenses during the biennium ending the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five defining the purposes for which such monies may be expended prescribing the powers and duties of the State Emergency Relief Board and certain State Departments.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1708 (House Bill No. 814), entitled:

An Act to amend section one hundred and one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as amended transferring the skunk or polecate from the furbearing animal class to the vermin class.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I feel it is my duty to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the next two bills are companion bills; there is no use voting for one and not the other. The first bill provides that there shall be a transfer of the skunk, or polecat, from the furbearing animal class to the vermin class; and the second bill provides for a tax on cosmetics, including perfumes.

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I want to remark that a bill by any other name could smell just as sweet.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the Senate should be informed that the author of the bill is a mole (Moul).

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, may I interrupt for a minute and call the Senate's attention for a moment seriously to this bill?

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, there seems to be a strange hilarity about this bill, but if you happen to live in a neighborhood over run by these particular animals and you could not lawfully get rid of them, you would be very glad for some aid in the dispersing of them by this bill. Its purpose is to take Mr. Skunk out of the class of furbearing animals and put him in the class of rodents. I would suggest, Mr. President, that this bill be voted upon in the affirmative.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I would like to know by what process science can make a rat out of a skunk, or a skunk out of a rat.

Mr. SORDONI. I am not a lawyer; and I do not live in Fayette County.

Mr. REED (Washington). Mr. President, I want to say a few words in protecting this little defenseless animal. This animal a few years ago was very plentiful in the State of Pennsylvania. It is rapidly being exterminated. It is a very good friend of the farmer; it is an insect destroyer, and I think any farmer, even though it does take a chicken once in a while, will come to its rescue and say it is a great help to him in cleaning his fields of mice and insects; and to boost this bill, you will put the skunk in the same class as the rat, and in a few years there won't be one in Pennsylvania I believe this bill should be voted down.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, if the bill can be amended to take the scent out of the skunk—

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, in all seriousness, this particular animal, I think, destroys more of the wild life than any other one animal that I know of; it particularly preys upon pheasant eggs, grouse and quail. I have seen them chase the hen off the nest and get right after the eggs.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE CONSTRUCTION OF A HIGHWAY ON THE SOUTH PENN RAILROAD ROUTE THROUGH THE ALLEGHENY MOUNTAINS BETWEEN HARRISBURG AND PITTSBURGH

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I desire at this time to call up House Resolution No. 138.

The resolution was read as follows:

IN the House of Representatives, April 23, 1935.

Whereas, The Federal Government, in order to alleviate unemployment, is developing various useful public works; and

Whereas, The newspapers throughout the State have brought to the attention of many thousands of its citizens and to the members of this Legislature a project advanced by the State Planning Board involving the construction of a highway upon the abandoned railway grade of the South Penn Railroad through the Allegheny Mountains between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh; and

Whereas, At the time construction was abandoned by the South Pennsylvania Railroad in 1885, nine tunnels through the mountains were approximately two-thirds completed and many miles of right of way were graded; and

Whereas, The completion of these tunnels and the construction of the intervening portions of highway, would provide the general public with a highway free from excessive grades, avoiding the dangerous storms upon the mountain tops, and upon which it would appear that at no point the highway grade would be in excess of one hundred feet to the mile; and

Whereas, The completion of these tunnels and the construction of this highway would require approximately 32,000,000 man hours of labor and would furnish immediate employment to many unemployed men now upon the relief rolls of the State; and

Whereas, All the materials entering into the construction project will be produced by the industries of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, It is estimated that the cost of completition and operation of the roadway and these highway tunnels may be defrayed within a reasonable period of time by a system of tolls to be charged for the use of the tunnels; and

Whereas, This South Penn Tunnel Highway would possess invaluable military value in time of war; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That a committee of three members of the Senate and three members of the House to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore and Speaker respectively, and in connection with the State Highway Department, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and the State Planning Board, and such other consultants as they choose to engage, make an investigation of this project; and

Resolved, That said committee shall make a report to the Legislature [during the present session] as promptly as possible, that they shall continue their investigations until a thorough study is completed.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39 which requires that concurrent resolutions reported from committee lie on the table one day, be suspended and that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 1422 (House Bill No. 2661), on final passage postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred eighty-four) entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a mercantile license tax on venders of or dealers in goods wares and merchandise and providing for the collection of said tax" as amended by increasing the tax for a limited period of time clarifying the provisions defining wholesale and retail venders and dealers and relating to appeals and repealing inconsistent acts

Mr. LAW. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?"

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I am doing this because it happened to be on the calendar at the suggestion of the Revenue Department. The old bill does not permit a defense to a tax against the merchant, except as to classification; that is to say, if he is overtaxed by the appraiser, he does not have any redress in court, and this is designed to amend that provision in the bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 1, line 7 of the title by striking out at the end of the line after the word "amended" the following: "by increasing the tax for a limited"; amend page 1, line 8 of the title by striking out at the beginning of the line before the word "[by" the following: "period of time"; amend section 1, page 2, line 1 by striking out after the word "section" and before the word 'of" the word "one" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "two"; amend section 1, page 2, line 6 by striking out at the end of the line after the word "tax'" the following: as last amended by the act"; amend section 1, page 2, by striking out lines 7 to 28 inclusive; amend section 1, page 3, by striking out lines 1 to 28 inclusive; amend section 1, page 4, by striking out lines 1 to 7 inclusive; amend section 2, page 4, line 8 by striking out at the beginning of the line before the word "is" the following: ["Section 2 That section two of said act"]; amend section 3, page 4, line 20 by striking out after the figure "[2]" and before the word "That" the figure "[3]" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "2"; amend section 4, page 6, line 22 by striking out after the figure "[3]" and before the word "The" the figure "[4]" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "3"; amend section 5, page 7, line 12 by striking out after the figure "[4]" and before the word "All" the figure "[5]" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "4"; amend section 6, page 7, line 14 by striking out after the figure "[5]" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "4"; amend section 6, page 7, line 14 by striking out after the figure "[5]" and before the word "This" the figure "[6]" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "5"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The amendment was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended be printed for the use of the Senate.

An Act making it unlawful under certain conditions for any water company to discontinue to any municipality the supply of water for fire protection purposes providing for the collection of water rates from cities boroughs towns and townships and prescribing penalties.

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of th same That it is unlawful for any person copartnership association or corporation operating as a water company and who or which has undertaken to supply any city borough town or township with water for the purpose of fire protection for any reason whatsoever to cut off or otherwise refuse to continue the supply of water for such purposes unless and until water for such purposes is available from other sources without first having secured the approval of the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania evidenced by its Certificate of Public Convenience authorizing discontinuance of such service.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Utilities for the purpose of amendment.

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think that this motion should prevail. This is a bill which provides under certain conditions for water companies to discontinue the supply of water for fire protection, giving the methods of collecting for it. To recommit this bill will permit conditions such as happened out in Western Pennsylvania recently when they cut off the water and they had a serious fire. I think this bill should be passed and I ask you to vote "no" on the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, forty-five members having voted in the affirmative, and sixty-three in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

In Section 1, line 7, page 1, after the word "protection" insert "and who or which has a valid enforceable contract providing for the payment by such city, borough, town or township of legally established charges for fire protection."

In Section 1, line 9, page 1, after the word "purpose" insert "during the period for which such city, borough, town or township is obligated by valid enforceable contract to pay legally established charges for fire protection."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that these amendments will have the effect of weakening the bill and to a large extent, nullifying it. As I understand it, it will limit this protection which is sought o be given by this measure in those cases where the water company has a valid and enforecable contract to pay for the water. As I understand the law, it is very possible that there might be a contract in existence, but it would not be a valid and enforceable contract because it exceeded the debt limit of the borough or something of that sort, or many defects might be found in it which would justify them turning off the water.

As I understand Section 2, it definitely provides, and I think it is binding upon the company which is a creature of the State, that in case where the water is used, where the service is given there is a special proceeding given whereby the water company can be protected. I think it is best to leave it in that form rather than to qualify it in the way which is suggested by the gentleman from Delaware, who just a moment ago tried to kill the bill by having it recommitted. I think it much better to leave it in its present form and see to it that we do not have occurrences such as we had in a borough last December where the water company cut off the service and there was a serious fire. It is more important than the protection to the water company and particularly when you give them the protection also. I think we should defeat these amendments.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when I asked the gentleman from Berks to speak louder so that we could hear him down here, I felt that his heart was not in the motion or in the argument that he was making. When his heart is in an argument there is no difficulty in hearing him in this corner of the House or in any other corner of the Capitol.

The argument of the gentleman from Berks, as I caught it, after I got him to raise his voice so that we could hear him down here,—what he was trying to say convinces me that his heart was not in the argument. He did not know exactly what he was going to argue about, but he felt that there was something about this amendment which I had offered which he ought to oppose. Therefore, he pitched his key in his usual vein and missed all of the points in the bill.

The reason I moved to recommit this bill was for the purpose of having an opportunity to present the amendments which I have presented. It seemed to me that was the more orderly way. It would be a time saver to the members of this House to recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Utilities. Any of you who have given any consideration to this public utility legislation passed by this House know that there is no difficulty in getting any kind of a bill out of the Public Utility Committee that is going to favor the boroughs or any other municipality.

There are always two sides to every question. The gentleman from Berks cites one case in Western Pennsylvania where some water company or some officials for the water company did not use good judgment. On the other hand, I know from facts stated in the convention of the League of Boroughs, that there are literally hundreds of municipalities or boroughs in Pennsylvania that owe the utility companies large sums of money which they cannot collect. You present a bill here to provide that they cannot cut off the water for fire protection.

I think that is all right. That should be, but certainly you ought to give the utility the opportunity to have a valid and enforceable contract that it can go into court and fight out the issue between the borough and itself. That is all this amendment does. It merely adds to this the proposition that the municipality shall have a valid and enforceable contract with the utility. You and I must have a valid and enforceable contract. We cannot get a supply of water unless we have a contract. Certainly the local communities, certainly the municipalities, should have no higher right than we have as an individual. There is no reason why they should have the right to do things that are illegal. Certainly there is no reason why a municipality should take advantage of its position and I, therefore, ask you to support these amendments, which I think are proper and which do not weaken in any respect and which do justice to all sides.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the nays appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, sixty-five members having voted in the affirmative and seventy-nine in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second, third, fourth and fifth sections and title were separately read and agreed to as follows:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in examining the legislative record concerning House Bill 67, I find that my name does not appear as having voted for said bill. I desire to state that I was present and that I did vote in favor of said bill.

I want to say further that during my term in this House I have consistently supported legislation in favor of equal rights for all citizens, regardless of race or color.

I also want to add that Mr. Hart, the gentleman from Philadelphia, definitely remembers that I was present and voted for that bill. I ask that the record show those facts.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 3040, Senate Bill No. 1516, Printer's No. 710, entitled

An Act for the protection of producers of farm produce providing for the licensing and regulation of certain individuals and entities receiving selling or offering for sale as principals or on consignment or on a net return basis within this Commonwealth farm produce conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Agriculture and otherwise providing for the administration of this act providing for appeals and prescribing penalties

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WASSERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WASSERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I noticed that in the Journal of Wednesday, April 17th, 1935, on House Bill 67 that I am not recorded as voting. I was present and I voted on House Bill No. 67, yet the roll call does not indicate that I voted for this bill.

I want to add that on January 22nd I introduced a similar bill containing similar provisions as contained in House Bill 67. In December, 1933, I introduced a similar bill which passed the House without any negative votes. My position in the matter no doubt is clear to the members of the House that I favor legislation of this kind or

I would not have introduced such legislation, in the session of 1933 as well as in this session. I was present and I voted for this bill and I should have been recorded as voting for House Bill 67.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I find that I am in the same predicament as many members from Philadelphia are on House Bill 67. In all my years of service here I have voted consistently for equal rights bills. I was here and voted "aye" on House Bill 67 and I do not understand why there are so many Philadelphia members who were here and who did vote "aye" on that bill but who are not recorded. I desire to be recorded as voting "aye" on House Bill 67. The bill passed without any opposition. I voted "aye" and I want to be recorded as voting "aye".

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CONDON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on April 17th I voted on House Bill 67. I am not recorded as voting. I voted "aye" on that bill and I wish to be recorded as voting "aye".

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

STATEMENT BY MR. REYNOLDS

Mr. REYNOLDS asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that it is a very fine act for the members who voted for such a noble bill to get up and get themselves recorded. I am very sorry that the clerks omitted them because I know all of them are of liberal views. I have been in this House since January along with the rest of the gentlemen, and I want to congratulate every man and woman in this House on their very fine views on questions of social legislation. I want to thank them for the courteous treatment that they have given to one another and I want to say that in the State of Pennsylvania, if this spirit is carried out throughout the counties, there is nothing that will keep Pennsylvanians from coming back to the prosperity that it ought to have. I want to ask, however, and when you go to your several homes, that you will carry out these liberal views and that you will be as fair to one another in the various counties, regardless of race or religion. This bill asked that equal rights be given to all people irrespective of race, creed, or color. It did not particularly allude to the colored citizens of the state of Pennsylvania, but I do think that lots of the institutions in the state of Pennsylvania feel that it was designed especially to help the colored people, to give them the rights which rightfully belong to them.

I read an editorial in the Oil City paper, the Oil City Derrick, which stated that all travelers in the country would avoid Pennsylvania if this law became effective. I would like to call the attention of that editorial writer and of the citizens of the state of Pennsylvania and the hotel associations who have been fighting this bill that in the state of New York they have had such a bill approximately fifteen years and travelers are not avoiding their hotels. The tourists traveling from the South and from other sections of the country do not avoid New York and it has the largest number of tourists and visitors of any state in the Union. We should not fear that this bill will cause any hardship on Americans. The colored people of the state are Americans the same as any one else. The statement was made on the floor of the House that my brethren have been treated with the same courtesy as any one else. I did not like that expression. I do not see that simply because a man is colored he should not be given the same treatment as anyone else. I know that Mr. Hart, Mr. Jackson, and myself have been sitting near each other and we have gotten along very nicely with all of the members of the House. Why is it that the hotel men's association or anyone else predicts that this bill is going to cause trouble, untold trouble? I say to you that if the spirit of the members of this House will be carried out there will be no such trouble because you men and women have been eminently fair. There is no reason why all the people should not be recognized. Social equality is one thing. Civil equality is another thing. If you allow any people to go about their way, they will work out their own social salvation. We must have laws to give them the rights that this bill gives them.

In conclusion, I want to thank the members of this House for their very liberal views. I ask you to give to the colored citizens an equal opportunity to make a living. If the colored people were good enough to fight for your country in time of war, then we are entitled to all our rights and privileges which are given to all the people.

I wish to thank the Speaker, and I wish to thank the Governor of the state, and I wish to thank the members of the House and the Senate in their stand to uphold the Constitution for the black people and the white people alike. We will work out our own salvation. We are working out our salvation for the glorification of God and the salvation of man. I thank you.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I would not have risen again to speak on this question except for the fact that a few moments ago a member on the other side of the House approached me and said that after last night and because of the evasion or attempted evasion on the part of one or two members that I ought to be a Democrat for the rest of my life. I want to say to that gentleman and to all the Republicans and Democrats in this House alike that I still have faith in the Republican party. I rise further in defense of my colleagues who have always stood loyal and steadfast in the interests of the colored people of Pennsylvania. The omission from this roll of so many Republicans coming from Negro districts seems to me as being suspicious of something other than regularity, but I am making no indictment against anybody. When the roll call omits the name of my friend here, Mr. Wasserman, my colleague, Mr. Conner and Mr. Tahl and all of these other men who have fought steadfastly for the advancement of the negroes in Pennsylvania, there is evidently something wrong. If it is the desire, as one of my friends on the other side has said, to carry out propaganda for the Democratic party in the next election by saying that these men were opposed to the best interests and the welfare of the colored people of Pennsylvania, then I want to say to you that the colored people of Pennsylvania regard this bill as almost sacred for their advancement and for the future of the negroes of Pennsylvania, and I am going to make it my duty to go into every section of Philadelphia where the names of these men have been mentioned and telling my people that these men are still loyal and have been loyal to the principles of the Republican party and to the advancement of the Negroes of Pennsylvania. Governor Earle in signing his bill has done a wonderful job for the Negroes of Pennsylvania, but I want to say that the initiative of all of this thing lies at the door of the Republican party. While I glorify in all that has been done by the other side, at the same time I reserve the right to still have faith in the Republican party.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHUGARTS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, some months ago I introduced in this House a resolution asking that a committee of three members be appointed by the Speaker of the House to watch over and investigate those members who were desirous of staying here over the week-end. At the time of the introduction of this resolution or just before that, the Honorable gentleman from Erie, Mr. McCreary, made the statement on the floor of the House, stating why he didn't go home over the week end. Shortly after that the Honorable gentleman from Montour, Mr. Welliver, introduced a resolution asking that the members remain in session the full week.

This resolution introduced by me was introduced in a jocular manner and was not intended as a reflection on any member of the House as I had no way of knowing just who or who did not remain in Harrisburg over the week end. It appears however that some people have taken this resolution to heart and are saying that where there is smoke there is fire. I refer especially to the Honorable gentlemen from Beaver, Mr. Reising, and Mr. Nagel. I have known these men during the session of the Legislature and I have always found them to be interested in matters pertaining to their constituents. This resolution was not intended as a reflection on any member of the House and if I have in any way caused embarrassment to any member of this House, I here and now wish to apologize because this resolution was intended more in the nature of a joke and I ask the House to treat it as such.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

RESOLUTION No. 176

Mr. DENT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 176, Printer's No. 1594.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 17, 1935.

Whereas, This nation continues in the grip of the economic depression which has now lasted for a period of five years

Whereas The various experiments which have been tried have not appreciably corrected conditions and have seemingly overlooked a vital factor which adds to the depression that is the ever increasing per centage of employables among our population and

Whereas This per centage of employables may be reduced only in one way by withdrawing from industry those who have arrived at certain ages in order to open positions for the young people who are in need of employment and

Whereas It is apparent that the solution does not lie in providing insurance for the unemployed but in providing financial assistance for those over certain ages thus permitting this case to withdraw from industry therefore be it

Resolved That the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint a committee of three members of this House whose duty it shall be to study and draft legislation providing for financial assistance to those over fifty years of age who will withdraw from industry and in such study to take into consideration the provisions of House Bill Number two hundred sixty-nine entitled "An act providing financial assistance for certain residents of this Commonwealth over fifty years of age who are not gainfully employed and who do not have a certain income establishing claims against the estates of such persons for assistance received requiring a certain per centage of the assistance received to be expended monthly creating and defining the powers of the citizens retirement board and defining the powers of the Department of Labor and Industry and House Bill Number two hundred seventy entitled "An act imposing an income tax on residents of Pennsylvania including fiduciaries providing for disposition of proceeds of the tax for citizens' retirement defining taxable income and requiring filing of returns thereof providing for the withholding of the tax at source in certain cases and imposing duties on withholding agents providing methods and proceediings for determination and collection of the tax and imposition of liens therefor providing methods and proceedings for determination of Revenue authorizing that department to make rules imposing penalties and making an appropriation for administrative costs"

Resolved That said committee shall report to the next regular session of the House of Representatives

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

RESOLUTION No. 169

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 169, Printer's No. 1601.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 10, 1935.

Whereas, Associations and corporations generally known as Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products are directly or indirectly marketing to consumers of farm products in this Commonwealth an ever increasing proportion of such products produced by the farmers of this Commonwealth, and

Whereas, A substantial number of the citizens of this Commonwealth are directly interested in the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations as members thereof, and

Whereas, the general public of the Commonwealth has an interest in the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations by reason of the fact that a substantial and ever increasing proportion of the agricultural products sold to the general public for consumption are marketed through such associations or corporations, and

Whereas, It is said to be desirable that the present laws governing such associations or corporations be revised to provide for the more efficient management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations in the interest of the members thereof and the general public, and

Whereas, Certain legislation has been proposed and is now pending before the Legislature designed to revise the existing law relating to such associations or corporations and it is said to be desirable that legislation be enacted properly to revise the management, operation and supervision of such associations or corporations, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized and directed to appoint a committee of five members of the House of Representatives, whose duty it shall be to investigate the operation of existing laws relative to the management, operation and supervision of Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products, and to determine what, if any, changes or revisions should be made in such laws properly to provide for such management, operation and supervision of said association or corporations in the future, and

Resolved, That the committee shall make a report to the House of Representatives as early as possible either at this session, if feasible, or at the next special or general session of the House of Representatives, and

Resolved, That the said committee shall have the power to hold public or private hearings, and to audit the books and accounts of such Co-operative Agricultural Associations or Corporations of Producers of Farm Products as in the opinion of the committee it may deem necessary to effectuate the purpose of this Resolution and to effect the purpose of this Resolution the committee shall have the power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before it and to answer to such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee, and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the force and effect of subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of the said committee shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records, or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the law of the Commonwealth in such cases

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2940 (Senate Bill No. 1426), as follows:

An Act prohibiting others than members of the Bar to practice law and providing penalties

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pnnsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That any person who shall practice law within this Commonwealth without being a member of the Bar of a Court of Record shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or shall suffer imprisonment not exceeding six months or both or either at the discretion of the court

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I hate to stir up any argument in regard to this bill. I wish to call to the attention of the members of the House that rule 72 states that any member who has a special interest in any bill should disclose the facts to the Assembly and not vote thereon, and I would ask the members of this House who are personally interested, the attorneys, that they be asked to rise to their feet and disclose the fact and not vote on this measure.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I understand that the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, objects to lawyers voting on this bill. Now, the question whether a man is a lawyer or not is a matter of opinion, and inasmuch as the term "lawyer" denotes one who is most learned in the law, I do not believe that any man who is a member of the House should be placed in the embarrassing position of saying that he could not vote on this bill because he was a lawyer, because that would be a term of conceit.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House the objection to this bill was removed. If you will take the bill, you will find that the objection is stricken out of the bill. The bill is very brief and just meets one point, nobody can practice law who is not a lawyer. That might include some members of the bar.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, reading the title of this bill, is says "An act prohibiting other than members of the bar from practicing law and providing penalties." I have not read the bill but I take it from this title that if this bill passes it might be possible that we could not elect representatives to this House unless they were lawyers. Another thing, I believe, from the title, it would also prohibit squires from practicing law. If somebody in the House can explain this bill, I should like him to do so at this time before I vote on it.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it has been stated that this is a very brief bill. It simply prohibits those who are not trained in the law from practicing law. I do not believe that the members of this House want to permit those who are not trained to practice law. You have strict rules and regulations in order to become either a lawyer or a member of the bar, as the distinction has been made this morning. You have laws upon the statute books definitely prohibiting people from becoming barbers unless they have a license . I don't know for how many others you have such laws upon the statute books. It prohibits people from practicing those occupations or professions unless they are qualified. All that this bill does is to give the same protection to the legal profession and to the public. It is not in the public interest to permit people who are not trained in law to practice law. Any lawyer will tell you that he knows of any number of cases of people going to people other than a lawyer for legal advice and before he is through he has to pay a lawyer several times that much to straighten out the mistakes that were made by the other fellow. This bill is in the public interest. It protects people from being imposed upon by those who have not the training. You have given this protection to many occupations which do not require the training or the attention that is required for lawyers. It is only fair that the same protection should be given to the public for this profession. I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. SHEPARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask someone who knows about this bill to explain whether or not under these provisions a public-spirited citizen who no doubt is interested in a certain case may not appear before a magistrate or a justice of the peace and ask for clemency for a person involved in a difficulty. Would that be permitted under the provisions of this act?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the inquiry of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shepard, permit me to say that what he asked would be permitted. The act only provides that it would be unlawful to practice law. "Practice Law" means practicing law at any time; it means a continuation; it means setting one's self up and calling himself a lawyer, pretending to be a lawyer, a continuance of that profession. You have the real estate broker, but a man can go out and sell a piece of real estate who is not a broker and that person can collect a commission, but if he continually practices the business of a real estate broker, he cannot recover a commission. This bill merely prohibits a man from establishing himself as a lawyer, pretending to be a lawyer and continually doing so. If a man in one instance intercedes for a friend or for a neighbor, that is not practicing law, and that person does not collect fees. If somebody comes to you and says, "I have a toothache," and you give some advice or prescribe something for him that does not make you a doctor. That is only occasional help that you give to a friend.

The object of the bill is to right a condition that is threatening the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by people pretending to be lawyers who are not lawyers and continually pretending to be such, and this bill is to reach that class of people.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Seakper, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia whether in his opinion this bill would prohibit a man from giving advice to a friend provided he did not charge for this advice.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, it would not. In further answer to the interrogatory permit me to say that everything that this bill prohibits is now controlled by law and the courts will prohibit an individual by an injunction which proceeding is a long and lengthy proceeding and does not reach the trickster who is going around and by the time you get an injunction the gentleman has gone. This reaches that type rather quickly. This bill adds nothing to the substantive law. It only provides a remedy for the protection of the people.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—1

Brown, J. E.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to vote "aye" on S. B. 847, H. B. 2848, despite the following findings of the Investigating Committee:

First. The Committee appointed for the University of Pittsburgh definitely found that the University in refusing a charter to the League for Social Justice showed a distinct tendency to abrogate and nullify any attempt on the part of the students to become engaged in activities of a liberal nature on the University Campus.

Second. The arrest of the students demonstrating against war was not justified.

Third. The report of the Committee unanimously shows that uncertainty of academis tenure exists at the University of Pittsburgh.

Fourth. The report of the Committee shows that insofar as the question of academic freedom pertains to Professors Warne and Chalmers, there was interference with their outside activities and that such interference with academis freedom of these Professors was unjustified.

Fifth. From Paragraph "B" of the Committee's report on page 23 of said report, entitled "Medical School Policies," it seems to be the thought of the Committee that in the use of the public funds allotted to the Universiy of Pittsburgh that there is discrimination on account of race with regard to the admission of medical students.

Sixth. The Committee feels that the method now used by the University of Pittsburgh for the selection of members to the Board of Trustees, is not conducive to the best interests of the University.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2946 (Senate Bill No. 1466), entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred and eighteen of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as amended permitting dogs to be trained on Sunday during the training season with the consent of owners of lands except in certain cases

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe that it was on February 14th that a bill that is almost identical to this one was before this House and defeated. Now, according to House Rule No. 60 it reads: "When a bill has been defeated by the House, it shall not be in order to introduce and consider a similar one or to act upon a Senate bill of like import, during the same session."

Due to the fact that this bill is of a similar import and like import to the one that has already been acted upon on the floor of this House, I move you on the strength of House Rule No. 60 that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this question was raised yesterday. The matter was referred to Mr. Fertig and Mr. Fertig has given a decision that this bill is different from the bill that was defeated earlier in the session.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman who last spoke, Mr. Schrope of Schuylkill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. NAGEL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell the members of this House wherein this difference exists?

Mr. SCHROPE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that persons deciding to train doys on Sunday have to procure the permission of the land owners before they are permitted to take the dogs thereon.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:
